Letter from the Editor

Kimberly Steele

We have had a great semester at the Prairie Light Review and are proud to share with you our latest issue. I encourage everyone to continue to create and submit such thought provoking and impressive art.

My year at PLR has been both fun and challenging. I've had the opportunity to meet and work with kind, intelligent, and artistic people, as well as the chance to participate in engaging discussions. And although my term is coming to an end I look forward to reading future issues and am so thankful that I had the opportunity to be a part of this great and enduring magazine. I am certain it will remain one of the most meaningful experiences of my life.

Once again I'd like to say a huge thank you to the PLR editorial staff and volunteers. None of this would have been possible with their hard work and dedication. I'd especially like to thank Veronica Shukin for going above and beyond this semester. Also, I would like to thank our faculty advisor Jackie McGrath. I think all of us here at PLR realize how lucky we are to have Jackie as our advisor. I admire Jackie for her optimistic spirit and her commitment to College of DuPage students.

Special Thanks

This publication could not be made without the generous support of many people. The staff would like to thank Chuck Steele, Chris Raposa, Stephanie Quirk, Shannon Hernandez, and the Student Activities Office; Susan Schmult and the Purchasing Office; Cathy Stablein; Liz Whiteacre, Brian Blevins, Rich Malec, Robyn Johnson, Chris Walker, and the College of DuPage Library; Dr. Wendolyn Tetlow, Dr. Beverly Reed, Heidemarie Wing, Rita Puishes, Cathie Walker and the Liberal Arts Division Office; Sue Martin, Dr. Joe Collins, and Dr. Robert Breuder.
