Banerjee: Surreal

Surreal

Bakul Banerjee

Searching for a clear perimeter of real, hovering over the precipice of surreal, if the impending fall you dread my child, be brave and gently tread.

May your chariot run on magical fuel, evanescing without any trace fume, May your journey take you well-beyond dreams, to a shrine of the sublime.

May you, as a pure nonconformist, explore corners of your soul.

May you avoid sharp edges of reality, to seek the surreal blurred against it.

Surreal, that's where you must go.
As we all know,
love roams in that realm.
