Time Petals

Samantha Arzola

Life, so simple, yet so fragile Delicate like a flower petal Floating aimless with the wind Disturbed by the slightest movement Falling down into the harsh dirt.

Being stepped on,
Spat on,
Crumbling with the pressures of reality
Ruined by the impurities of the world.
Purged with the screams horror,
Saturated with the tears of sadness
And stained with the crimson taste of iron.

Life, so simple, yet so fragile
Delicate like a flower petal
Innocent like a newborn
Wise like the elderly
Witnessing like we are.
We are petals,
Time is our wind,
Where we land all depends on our course.
