I fall into a dream

When I see you, I recall
The emotions that did befall
My raging heart—so soft and kind
Yet so painful upon my mind.
As the stars above do lightly unfold,
A genesis of tragic stories untold
Flow through me beautifully like wine
And our brief but stately histories intertwine
Ah, but where have you gone, my dear?
When your secret passions and fears are near
The shadows speak, echoing over your thoughts
And the silence which covers us leaves me distraught
Is it true what they say? That such infinite distance
Or such close perspective wraps you in its trance
Enclosing, forgetting words from another and of you
Or me, patches of black and white, what is false or true
