Miss Gross Materialism

– Richard Oberbruner

Miss Gross Materialism,
after securing pageant victory with an outrageous sales pitch song from a handstand where she just about popped out of her bikini to the salacious wishes of every corporate orgasmic judge in televised America, is on display this week at the mall, where her unfettered profit glory entices girls of all ages to mimic award-winning style with hour glass curvature grace and a war paint mouth that can shoot down Apache attack helicopters with adjectives once asleep in dinosaur thesauruses as teenage boys discover the fish tails in their loins that sat dormant like fossils since birth until the call of the consumer wild hit home in the caves of their immature beings, which is why they buy cars and cruise ad nauseam to give themselves the miles and miles of attention they so deeply deserve.
