mood swings like thought streams drugged by the delusion of simple thoughts of a complex nature screaming ideals into your ideas waking dreams like curtain calls on a moment and a memory lived and loved by that breath of the artificial uncertainty of your beliefs misread glances like paranoid stares of the impaired eyes of the confused yet hopeful and ever-wandering spaces within your soul

tripping reality like fooling fate impossibly pursued and left unachieved except by imaginary truths believed only in your mind

living minutes like “carpe diem!” meant in the most cliché way yet one of those often uttered phrases you mumble to yourself

racing emotions like offbeat pulses daring to feel, begging to be, longing to dare, feeling to beg, being to long for your embrace whispered secrets like unspoken bonds shared between breathing and laughter and silent moments filled with the beauty of your life

teasing smiles like silly kisses full of meaning but hiding as if waiting for the right moment to open up and reveal to me
your love
