Dinner at Bistro Monet or Buried in Squash

William Vollrath

I fell into my squash Right near the pickled beets This French cuisine was great Until I slipped my seat

Deeper and deeper I sank Into the orangish-gold Now dinner's up my nose At least it isn't cold

Mother told her boys
"Dive in, before it's gone"
But neck-deep in buttered squash
Is much better for fried prawns

I think I might escape
This tasty, golden glop
If I just can get a foot
On top of that fat pork chop
