break. I longed to be the one to shatter what little heart he had left.

Smiley Miley, you have much to be Smiley about:

Television and silver screen stardom so young,

They put their hands up playing your song

“Party in the U.S.A!” they all shout.

But does your naiveté give you pardon

When this is what you wanted all along?

Your millions of dollars and millions of admirers

Records gone gold and top single hits

Star rating climbing, boyfriend list heightening,

And all the while, still burning are fires,

People dying, but you’re too busy moving your hips

Like Yeah, it’s kind of frightening.
