Not quite as fast, but instead, absorbing the view around me, taking it all in as I pass. I run towards my goals, my dreams, my ambitions, and myself. I try to catch up to the better version of me every day. And this doesn't mean that I always succeed. I acknowledge that sometimes we fall short, and sometimes I cannot quite reach who I want to be, but I lace up every morning, plug in my headphones, and try again. Because as soon as my feet touch the cement, I am one step closer.
