mirror mirror

Playacting as yourself,
Pretend for a second that I am you
(This isn't presumptuous I promise.)
I'll look at myself and laugh
(I may even wave if I'm inclined.)

We view each other as if through Plexiglass – you can get it cheap
All the lilting maneuvers your body
Makes mine follows like mirrored Constellations of an unknown star.

Unto myself I am rendered
Obsolete like pedantic arguments
And foolish like two year old grudges
Aspersions the mirrored figure
Only hints at – and briefly!

If one thing can be improved
In this perceptual cavalcade
It's the pacing; you see me, we see you
And my what lovely eyes you have
All the better to see myself with
