The weathered heart

Vladimir Golub

A change in weather, a change in heart, Where climate influences those distraught, There lie sensitive souls of winter woe, Whose depressed conscience brought an emotional cold.

maudlin for madeline

Bruce Gracka

Blissful wishful kisses up and down your spine the midnight air caresses our bare bodies till the sun rises earthen smells decadent delights appease me till your smile is gone replaced with just a memory your scent disappears off my sheets with each new wash new days grow darker trying to hold on to this rope of sand a love so fragile
it died in the palm of my hand
