The Prosperity Trap

R.S. Petranek

You minutely adjust Your heated leather seats and the scent of power Flows thru the vents as you drive your Tanks to the Supermarkets

And you can see it on the road in the eyes of your opponents, and in their posturing, and in their bumper stickers-declaring their philosophies and politics or piously pushing their religions to all of the misguided who believe Anything Else from the backends of their forty-thousand-dollar cars answers are easy when there's no time for you to ask any questions and tolerance is just a word as we partake in the gradual Coarsening of America

We're living the last great paradox-Land of the greed, home of the slaves.
