A Pilgrimage Toward Progression

by Patrick Kampmeyer

Street signs
like monuments.
Or eulogies.

Little compensation for lost lives.
Or memories.
My tire swing has become a cubicle.
Or carpal tunnel.

The plow and hay bale
are lawn care.
Or snow removal.

Poetry is written with archaic pencil.
Must use typewriter.
Or magic box.

Only stairs to climb now.
But the future
is our friend.
Or not.
