Haven: Masters of Art

Carrianna Renwick

The dead artists and poets
Go off to their own place
With pen, pencil, paint brushes,
Charcoal, color pens and pencils,
And vast amounts of paper

Artists paint the sky
The sunrise and sunset
Clouds are smudges
Left by the writers
Who write what everyone says
In the mortal realm

Out of everyone who has died
They come back later on
And follow their chosen one
Till their sweet end
And tell them what to say
While making them act and react
To the situations around them

Artists paint the clothes
For people to wear
While writers write a screenplay
For the person's entire life.
