You Sizzle

– Ron Edison

I fried bacon last night and thought of you.
Lying naked and pale in the shimmering heat perking and pouting wistfully.
Quiet kisses building to a busy hiss-- a writhing crescendo of sizzle and pop.
Sharp splatters bite and burn my bare skin as you curl and quiver hot and dripping in cloying, pungent fragility crumbling gently at my touch.
I nibbled
you crunched
in smoky golden surrender a sinfully wicked tang dissolving on my tongue.
