A Concrete Star
By Jenny Lauren Meyer

It's
m o r e
than just a shape put together with a few odd triangles. It's a people and their history. A holiday, family, and friends. It's unity, hope, and belief. A sense of belonging. Feeling closer to my God.
Pride and uniqueness. Why a gang would choose to trash such a beautiful symbol is beyond my understanding. I should not have to be uncomfortable
wearing this around my neck.
