Vanilla

By Josh M. Konkoly

The sweet rhythm of blues dances in my half filled soul The sorrow of past bitterly sweetened by the smooth latte at my side

The rain slaps the old window pane tapping a rhythm that eases my mind while the cool water rush against the street banks mix to make a soothing sound complimented by the soft melody of the coffee pressed steam shooting high into the air which sweeps me off my feet and turns my sorrow into the melodic blues fusion that fills the air...
