Very Special Thanks To:

Meri Phillips in Student Activities (for patience with the young), Allan Carter (for his excellent words of advice and his fantastic appetite), Sue in Purchasing (for just being nice), Bob Rogers, President of Republic Printing (for all the time and help he gave us), Tree Towns Art Supply, the five faculty members (you know who you are) who judged our staff submissions, and finally, thanks to all of you who submitted -- and if we forgot to thank you, blame it on the blonde.

The Prairie Light Review is published semi-annually through the sponsorship of the Communications Division and is funded by the College of DuPage Student Activities Fund.

The Prairie Light Review welcomes submissions of original poetry, short fiction, drama essays, photography and artwork (any medium), from students, faculty, staff, and community members served by the College of DuPage. All work will be reviewed anonymously. Please send submissions with a self-addressed stamped envelope to:
