by Mike Benes

Through your eyes,
I can see that your soul is tired
That your heart doesn't know who to trust
That you're physically worn down
From all the stress that life has caused.

Through your eyes,
I can see the Struggle
Of someone trying to find out
Who she is
And where she wants to go.

Your beautiful eyes,
They remind me of the disappointment
That I gave to you years ago.
I feel so much like I am the one to blame for your sorrow
And for that,
I am sorry.

But just once,
I wish your eyes
Would look through mine.
Maybe then, you would find out
Just how much
I love you.
