SERENA'S WRITING POETRY!

Mil Riese

A small grey bird, Serena?
Never.

More like
a fierce baby eagle
discovering SKY for the first time.
Swings by its talons on the nest edge,
screams "I'll beat you,
I'll meet you out there".
Sensing incredible mysteries
in sweet Spring grass
and roaring rivers -
grips, teeters, challenges.
Cuts loose
down to the feast.

Now!

Serena thinks -
The world's a hunched rabbit
under my newly gorgeous wings
in the scope of my bright eyes,
free-falling through layers of sun
to the beach and the grave.
