ON THAT NOTE

Meg Kindelin

Dearest Wife,

I am very sorry —
but it is just
too hard to breathe.
The divorce isn't final.
I want you
to have my things:
the orange rug
from Nana,
the color TV,
a large mattress,
and the vacuum.
(They're almost new).
Also,
a life-insurance policy
with the account
at First National.

Love,
Bill

P.S.
Call the Legion;
they'll take care of me.
