CREATIVITY

Kathleen Keenan

It is like having no pen
no paper
with only this thing
birthing
inside you.
on your tongue.
stirring in your loins.
strangling in your groin.
herniating itself into the space between your legs.
the lines
where you write.
where you wish.
where you create.
Writer.
take out the flat
bone-chalk
of your spine.
turn it sideways.
these
will be your
implements.
