A SECOND LOOK

I never really looked at flowers till now With one hand on my brow I sit here wondering how

The roses set before me Seem so special now

They surely weren't arranged Somehow I find it strange

All but one have bloomed That lone bud will open soon

- Richard Hay, Sr.

IT ISN'T A FAIRYTALE, BUT IT'S NICE

It isn't a fairytale. Did we ever court? It can't be a wedding. the quest list is too abbreviated. Yet today I will take you, nearly for wife, perhaps for most of our lives. Linger awhile. we've special moments ahead. memories to create, and courses to set. Material moderation. no lace gown, no church. Just we essentials, and a speck, even rented. peaceful, our somewhere on earth. We are each others burden, to be carried in bliss. as light as true caring, eased upward by trust. Forever is long, longer than I can know. Let's deal in tomorrows. look one's already here! So today I will take you, nearly for wife, for friend, intimate and lover, perhaps for most of our lives. Did I tell you that yesterday? Have we already shared? We will encore tomorrow, should both of us so yearn. We fill each others void well. and though no fairytale this. to trust, trust completely is a treasure from youth.

Corra: Survival

TOMORROWS BATTLE

The Indian and the Trooper had been friends for many a year

Today they met in secret and discussed the coming battle

Both were fluent in each others tongue

They argued the outcome of tomorrow's frey

The Indian bragged of his fearless allies

And in his turn so did the Trooper

So proud was each one of his General the other of his chief

As night drew near they wished each other luck and reaffirmed their eternal friendship

Both were killed the following day

SURVIVAL

For millions of years you have stripped our matriarchal systems to the bone. discarding us like Jews thrown into open graves, trying to bury us. But it is difficult isn't it? The blood keeps rising to the surface. The voice continues to speak. Like a roach our tolerance grows stronger with each new application of your insecticidal fears.

- Kathy Corra

SOLO

I arrive at the open green field where she waits for me. The bright rays of the summer can reflect off her skin. She says not a word as I move my hands over her smooth body. I enter her and take control. Her every movement is by my command. We leave the constrictions of the earth as we take to the sky. It's only the two of us among the clouds of white, and the skies of blue. We climb and fall, we move in and out, up and down, speed and glide, we are one. Our only restriction finds us, it is time of light. We have used our day's quota and to earth we glide. I release my gentle hold on her as we decend to the cold darkened earth. I leave her now, across the field of light I once knew to let her sleep on in night's hand. Off I go, to dream of the time when we'll be together again.
