About:

The Prairie Light Review is the College of Dupage art and literary journal. We are a student-run, biannual publication that seeks to honor and showcase the creative talents of our diverse community. All of the material in this magazine is the work of students and residents of District 502. Each piece has been selected blindly to ensure objectivity.

Prairie Light Review can be picked up in the Library, MacAnanich Arts Building, and outside of our office at SSC 1227.
