SUGAR ME DOWN

Candy between my fingers, sticking to my skin. Snaps in my ear, surface kissing surface. Even when I scrub it clean, there you will always linger. We are a lot alike, two tasty toys. Come get a piece of me, honey. I'll swim in your viscosity.

I want that cotton candy mane in my face, sugar melting on my tongue. Sweet breath of yours I breathe. In this dry desert, it might rain. You've got me soaked, you're like syrup on me. I try to wash my skin, but sweetie, you're stuck to me. Your caramel voice,

I can't resist, the savory have left me unsatisfied, and I want something sweet, sugar. I'll stick to you and you'll stick to me, skin on skin, surface kissing surface.
