

The Prairie Light Review

Volume 43 | Number 1

Article 57

Fall 12-1-2020

Sappho of the Cathedral

J Gebner
College of DuPage

Follow this and additional works at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr>

Recommended Citation

Gebner, J (2020) "Sappho of the Cathedral," The Prairie Light Review. Vol. 43 : No. 1 , Article 57.
Available at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr/vol43/iss1/57>

This Selection is brought to you for free and open access by the College Publications at DigitalCommons@COD. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Prairie Light Review by an authorized editor of DigitalCommons@COD. For more information, please contact orenick@cod.edu.

The crucified one above us, the sun burns through stained glass
*Dies Irae*¹ is upon us, the world engulfed in flame
But sinners 'til the end, we kiss and hold each other close

The crucified one above us, the moon shines through stained glass
*Deus caritas est*², I know that it is true
The love of Christ shown in our intertwined bodies

The crucified one above us, the sun glints through stained glass
*Imago Dei*³ is what men are, but you are much more
The pure radiance of heaven, condensed into woman

The crucified one above us, the moon gleams through stained glass
*Deus absconditus*⁴, found and known in your face
Hands held in the pews, unknown by those around us

The crucified one above us, the sun seeps through stained glass
*Creatio ex nihilo*⁵, my love for you blossoms
And what joy fills my heart when you feel the same way

The crucified one above me, the moon glows through stained glass
*Solo Christo*⁶, I believe, until I see you there
I feel something new, and in that moment, I fall

1 Day of Wrath

2 God is love (charity)

3 Image of God

4 The hidden God

5 Creation from Nothing

6 Christ Alone