

The Prairie Light Review

Volume 43
Number 2 Spring 2021

Article 70

Spring 5-1-2021

Budilovsky Award Winner for Fall 2020

Follow this and additional works at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr>

Recommended Citation

(2021) "Budilovsky Award Winner for Fall 2020," The Prairie Light Review: Vol. 43 : No. 2 , Article 70.
Available at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr/vol43/iss2/70>

This Back Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the College Publications at DigitalCommons@COD. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Prairie Light Review by an authorized editor of DigitalCommons@COD. For more information, please contact orenick@cod.edu.

Nika. Katy Cunningham

Budilovsky Award Winner for Fall 2020

Prairie Light Review would like to take a moment to honor the previous winner of the Budilovsky Literary Award, which is given to the Best Written Work by a College of DuPage student each semester. More information on this award can be found on page 2 of this edition.

Nellie Bly Workman is the most recent winner of the scholarship, appearing in the Fall 2020 volume with “The Lady Frankenstein Looks Into a Mirror”. An extremely versatile piece that can speak to people from all walks of life, it initiates a conversation on how society forces people to fight for who they are, and not who others want them to be. Nellie artfully weaves clever imagery and subtext together to create a piece with astounding depth beneath the surface.

(right) Bliss. Lily Mayfield

