Molina: Climate Change

Our foolish hearts melt like ice
in the sunlight
before pictures of sticks
and stones,
travails
with an ex-wife,
the dead puppy.

But there, in the wastelands of Afric and Ind,
Rio and Lisbon,
where the Tagus,
good as gold,
is a fancy name
for nothing;

there, in odds and ends,
in nooks and crannies,
in darkness,

they go on starving.
