

The Prairie Light Review

Volume 44
Number 1 Fall 2021

Article 80

Fall 11-1-2021

The Budilovsky Literary Award for Best Student Writing in Spring 2021

Follow this and additional works at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr>

Recommended Citation

(2021) "The Budilovsky Literary Award for Best Student Writing in Spring 2021," The Prairie Light Review.
Vol. 44 : No. 1 , Article 80.

Available at: <https://dc.cod.edu/plr/vol44/iss1/80>

This Back Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the College Publications at DigitalCommons@COD. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Prairie Light Review by an authorized editor of DigitalCommons@COD. For more information, please contact orenick@cod.edu.

The Budilovsky Literary Award for Best Student Writing in Spring 2021

Prairie Light Review would like to take a moment to honor the previous winner of the Budilovsky Literary Award, which is given to the best written work by a College of DuPage student each semester. More information on this award can be found on page 2 of this edition.

Michael Cunningham is our latest scholarship winner, appearing in the Spring 2021 volume with “Underwood” and “Flowers for St. Germaine.” Michael’s talent for crafting thought-provoking introspection on the nature of humanity cannot be understated. Whether that be intimate moments in time that leave you on the edge of your seat, or works that effortlessly encapsulate the complex mind of man, Michael is a master at his craft. His works are sure to leave an impact that will have you coming back again and again to revel in their brilliance.