Under Film Lights, Courtney Chomycia

Sad Eyes Madelene Przybysz

I've been told that I have sad eyes

Though I smile and speak lightly.

They say there is a dim light that will blow out if I let it and allow myself to let go

They say I walk with confidence in a timid way and hold myself carefully that seems unsure

I'll think about things before I speak but bite my tongue although I live with no regrets.

They say I want all the color and chaos though I am too shy to begin

And that love is there if I let it in.

Somebody told me that I have sad eyes

And to that

I smiled, politely

And walked away
