Howes: Night Moves

Nostalgia Khadijah Rashid

A gaping hole in my chest
That I try to fill
On a cold sidewalk bench
Or the wet edge of a curb
With yet another new friend
Or a spill of words

A gaping hole in my chest
Torn open by
An old favorite song
Or a well-loved book
But maybe I'm wrong
And won't see a hole, if I look

At that longing for Something tucked so well away
It felt like it was no longer there
Till something dug it out one day
And made me aware

Night Moves,
Christopher Howes
