San Francisco, Connections

Mardelle Fortier

So many bridges, they must be heading somewhere.
I'm without wheels, yet I force myself to keep walking. So many gleams, they must light the way to something. I've missed out on comforts that others enjoy, but if I can trudge through the long cold of night,

I'll find what a few have found before me, alone and driven in the City of Lights.
