Faceless
ADAM SANA

A conspiracy unraveled, indulgence ever telling, choking on a piece of cake not worth the endeavor of serving.

A menacing frame of mind with an unsteady house swaying at the base, cracks piercing through.

With a faceless sentiment and a glass brimful of wine, I sit on my throne of thorns and drift silently to sleep.

Cards drawn and layed out, immutable, eyes crossed out betwixt my fate and freedom, jealousy, my ancient island of greed.
