Writing at CoD:

COD's Creative Writing Certificate is customized to nurture talent and develop creative voice. In a five-course sequence, students enhance their creative writing skills by studying craft, literature, and publishing. Run by award-winning faculty, it serves students interested in a stackable credential, those transferring to our articulation partners, and those looking to perfect work for publication. Students who take the Prairie Light Review course earn elective or capstone credit towards the program, while gaining real-world experience as editors and designers. Visit cod.edu/english for more!
