Self _ Christina Savaglio

I grew up very quick,
knew who I was at an early age.
So I put my personality on like a costume,
I am an actress and the world is my stage.
I paint my body like a canvas,
poke needles into my skin.
No need to wonder who I am,
my deposition is built in.
God forbid you think I'm boring,
I'll perform just for you.
Put on that mask I call my identity,
it's my big acting debut.
Without this image who am I?
I'd be naked, vulnerable, lost.
I'd do it all for you to like me,
I'd do it all, but at what cost?
