"Responding to Dynamic Emptiness: A Non-Dualistic Approach to Self in Zen Buddhism."

Course Module for Teaching the Zen View of Personhood in a Related Section
Philosophy of Religion

Produced for NEH Grant Seminar
"Philosophical Ideas and Artistic Pursuits in the Traditions of Asia and the West" 2008

Joshua Price
College of DuPage
pricej@cod.edu

Work Cited

Abe, Masao. Zen and Western Thought. Edited by William R. LaFleur. Honolulu: University of Hawaii Press, 1989.

Peter D. Hershock, "Person as narration: the dissolution of 'self' and 'other' in Ch'an Buddhism." Philosophy East and West 44.n4 (Oct 1994): 685(26) abstract. Academic OneFile. Gale. College of DuPage (

Hume, David. "Personal Identity." In The Philosophical Quest: A Cross-Cultural Reader, 2nd ed. Edited by Gail M. Presbey, Karsten J. Struhl, and Richard E. Olsen, 298-300. McGraw Hill, 2000.

I-Hsuan. The Zen Teachings of Master Lin-Chi: A Translation of the Lin-chi lu, translated by Burton Watson. New York: Columbia University Press, 1999.

Kasulis, T.P. Zen Action/zen Person. Honolulu: University of Hawaii Press, 1989.

Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter…and Spring. DVD. Directed by KIM KI-DUK. 2003; CulverCity, CA: Columbia TriStar Home Video, 2004.