You Weren't There

Christine Aument

I stopped by the cemetery today.
You weren't there.

I looked at your name on the headstone.
It was mine, not yours,
Despite the fact you gave it to me.

I walked by your tree this afternoon.
You were there.

More than at the cemetery,
Less than in my heart.

I miss you, I love you still,
But when I stopped by the cemetery today,
You weren't there.
