I Usually End Up Faking It

Emily Eubanks

it cost me $50
just to sleep next to you
saggy balls, missionary robot breakfast blowjobs.
your back smelled like
sour dough. skin on skin contact. we sometimes lied
together in our underwear
and felt our hearts beat.
we sometimes lied
out of sync;
does it matter? did you notice even?

it costs me $50
just to sleep next to you grapefruit boobs, diet S&M kisses everywhere kisses.
your hair smells like
pomegranates, maple syrup.
hip on hip contact. we
sometimes sleep together.
we sometimes slept
out of order;
talking in your sleep again,
don't you ever shut up?
