The World's Last Tear

by Greg Lyons

Alone I stand
on the shore; that whore fondles Dawn to night against my skin

The sun sets with
I, staring thru mine,
listening to light;
the voice of rhyme.

The sky stumbles
asleep, on seamless
seas, longing to stay
swallowed in dreams.

The restless breeze
gently wrestles to breathe the loneliness
of weary scenes

I close my eyes,
tears wash my feet
and the lonely sea,
falls down my cheek.
